Great Barford Parish Council

Policy and Procedure for co-opting a new Councillor

This procedure is based on NALC LTN 8 – Elections and Co-option.

Parish Councils are permitted to exercise the power to co-opt a person on to the Council to fill a casual vacancy when the requirements to hold an election have not been met (i.e. The vacancy has been the subject of a public notice and less than 10 registered electors have requested an election by a deadline date specified by the Borough Returning Officer).

Although seeking “expressions of interest” is not a legal requirement, the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) recommends that Councils always give public notice of vacancies because this makes the process of co-option open and transparent and should attract more potential candidates.

Whenever the need for co-option arises, Great Barford Parish Council will consider advertising the vacancy to seek and encourage ‘expressions of interest’ by a specified date from anyone who is eligible to stand as a Parish Councillor. All potential candidates will be requested to put their request for consideration by completing an application form (See Appendix A).

At the next Full Council meeting following the deadline to express interest:

- i. Clerk to confirm that each candidate is qualified to become a Councillor as set out in the Local Government Act 1972 s79 and is not disqualified from being a Councillor under s80 of the 1972 Act (see appendix A);
- ii. The candidates may be invited to address the Council. The Chair shall then seek proposers and seconders for each nomination (whether or not they have spoken) and the vote will follow.
- iii. In order for a candidate to be elected, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast. If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting, the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place, with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second and casting vote.
- iv. The Clerk to approach and offer co-option to candidate(s) after the meeting. The Clerk to notify Electoral Services of the new Councillor appointment, initiate completion of ‘acceptance of office’ and ‘registration of interests’.

Please note it is a condition of becoming a Councillor that a Council email address will be provided and must be used for Council business and a Declaration of Interests Form must be completed and will be published.

Assuming that the co-option position is filled and all paperwork completed, formally ratify the appointment at the next Full Council meeting.

If no one accepts the vacant post(s), the whole process is to be repeated when new individuals expressing interest are identified.
